

Silent to the Bone

Reading Comprehension: Chapter 11

- 1) Why does Connor think Branwell didn't say anything about Vivian?
- 2) How does Connor feel about Vivian?
- 3) What is Margaret's analogy?
  - a. What is it a metaphor for?
- 4) Connor says, "With a sister like Margaret, there is no such thing as a perfect reply, a perfect conversation, or a perfect carving in ivory." What does he mean by this?