

Tuck Everlasting

Reading Comprehension Questions, 17-18

1. What does Miles invite Winnie to do?
2. Why was Winnie convinced that the Tucks would honor their promise to return her to her family?
3. Why didn't Miles take his own son and daughter to the spring to drink?
4. How does Miles respond to Winnie's reflection that it would be nice if nothing ever had to die?
5. How is Winnie convinced that the Tucks were right about wanting to keep the spring a secret?
 - a. Do you agree?
6. Why is Tuck concerned about taking Winnie home?
7. What wish does Winnie make for the first time since her capture?
8. Who does Winnie think may be the nicest family member of all?
9. How does the knock on the door create suspense?